

Dosti House 2018 Periodicals list

Adventure Box

10 issues/12 months

Children's literature to help your child's reading development.

American Cinematographer

Monthly

American Cinematographer is a magazine published monthly by the American Society of Cinematographers. It focuses on the art and craft of cinematography, covering domestic and foreign feature productions, television productions, short films, music videos and commercials.

Animation magazine

10 times/year

Animation Magazine is an American print magazine and website covering the animation industry and education, as well as visual effects.

Art in America

Monthly

Art in America is an illustrated monthly, international magazine concentrating on the contemporary art world in the United States, including profiles of artists and genres, updates about art movements, show reviews and event schedules. It is designed for collectors, artists, art dealers, art professionals and other readers are interested in the art world.

Atlantic Monthly

Monthly

Created as a literary and cultural commentary magazine, it has grown to achieve a national reputation as a high-quality review organ with a moderate worldview.[3] The magazine has notably recognized and published new writers and poets, as well as encouraged major careers. It has published leading writers' commentary on abolition, education, and other major issues in contemporary political affairs.

Bloomberg Business Week

50 issues

A renowned business publication. Business news, trends and profiles of successful businesspeople.

Click

9 issues

Click Click's motto is "Opening windows for young minds" and the magazine delivers with a wide range of quirky facts and stranger-than-fiction photography.

Cobblestone (Discover American History)*9 issues

Designed to meet curriculum standards for history/social science while still being a lively and entertaining reading experience for young history buffs, COBBLESTONE is the recognized leader in the study of American history.

Cricket: the magazine for children*9 issues

CRICKET publishes only the highest quality fiction and classic literature and nonfiction stories on culture, history, science, and the arts. Each 48-page issue includes a story, poetry, or art contest, as well as the signature cast of rambunctious bug characters who offer humorous commentary on the stories.

Discover*10 issues

A science magazine that includes current news and information about all areas of science and technology with general interest articles written in nontechnical language.

Dwell*10 issues

Dwell magazine is a smart, accessible publication dedicated to modern design. Each issue explores the myriad ways in which good design thinking can deliver a better life.

Econtent*6 issues

A bimonthly trade magazine focused on the acquisition, creation, management, storage and distribution of digital content. Articles provide essential research, reporting, news, and analysis of content-related issues for executives and professionals involved in digital content in both commercial and enterprise environments.

Education Digest*9 issues

Covers the entire education field from pre-elementary to college levels for school libraries and administrators, superintendents, supervisors and principals.

Entertainment Weekly*50 issues

A magazine reporting on trends in the entertainment industry. Features reviews and reports on current and noteworthy events in television, movies, video, music, and kid.' entertainment, as well as celebrity gossip.

Entrepreneur Magazine*10 issues

Entrepreneur magazine is the premier source for everything small business.

Esquire*10 issues

Magazine reporting on men's interests and fashions.

Faces: People, places & culture*9 issues

Around the world and back, young readers get an honest and unbiased view of how people in other countries and world regions live. From the clothes they wear to the foods they eat, readers get a glimpse into the way their peers live. Each issue takes readers to a different country or region, or explores a topic of global importance. Be a citizen of the world.

Family Circle*Monthly

Family Circle magazine is a publication that covers all aspects of family life and provides you with helpful recipes and cooking tips, decorating ideas, cleaning advice, and family activities you can enjoy with your entire household. Each issue is packed with informative articles on a variety of topics such as health and nutrition, fashion and beauty tips, and delicious recipes your entire family will love.

Disney Family fun*8 issues

The magazine is written for parents with children aged 3 to 12, and focuses on family cooking, vacations, parties, holidays, crafts, and learning.

Fast company*10 issues

A business magazine devoted to innovative business practices. Reports on how companies create and compete and are reinventing business. Themes include business, information technology, marketing, and best practices.

Film Comment*(6 issues)

Film Comment is an arts and culture magazine now published by the Film Society of Lincoln Center, of which it is its official publication. Film Comment features reviews and analysis of mainstream, art-house, and avant-garde filmmaking from around the world.

Forbes*18 issues

For corporate officers and other major executives in business interested in developing management insight through review of the nation's largest corporations.

Foreign Affairs*6 issues

A scholarly bimonthly journal published by the Council on Foreign Relations that covers international affairs and foreign policy and provides an international forum for new ideas, analysis, and debate on significant world issues. Audience includes government officials, academics, business leaders, and non-governmental groups such as human rights organizations.

Foreign Policy

7 issues

Covers political science and international relations.

Fortune

20 issues

Fortune is a multinational business magazine, published and owned by Time Inc. The magazine competes with Forbes and Bloomberg Businessweek in the national business magazine category and distinguishes itself with long, in-depth feature articles.[2] The magazine is best known for the Fortune 500, a ranking of companies by revenue that it has published annually since 1955.

Good Housekeeping

Monthly

A consumer magazine focusing on issues for women, home and family. Regular departments include advice by Peggy Post, Hints by Heloise, and columns by Jane Bryant Quinn. Articles focus on health, beauty, relationships, fitness and interior decoration.

Harvard Business Review

6 issues

Harvard Business Review (HBR) is a general management magazine published by Harvard Business Publishing. HBR's articles cover a wide range of topics that are relevant to different industries, management functions, and geographic locations. These focus on such areas as leadership, organizational change, negotiation, strategy, operations, marketing, finance, and managing people.

Health

10 issues

Provides information on the latest advancements in human health.

Inc. Magazine

10 issues

A business magazine that presents information for small business management, including financing, the law, marketing, taxes, and managing people. Includes columns and departments on trends, new Internet technology, tips from CEOs, and advice on managing people.

Library Journal

Semimonthly

A full-service magazine/ working tool tailored to the information needs of librarians and managers in public, academic and corporate libraries.

Make: Technology on your time*6 issues

Make is published by Maker Media[1] which focuses on do it yourself and/or Do It With Others projects involving computers, electronics, robotics, metalworking, woodworking and other disciplines. The magazine is marketed to people who enjoy making things and features complex projects which can often be completed with cheap materials, including household items.

MELUS: The Journal of the Society for the Study of the Multi-Ethnic Literature of the United States

4 issues

A journal concentrating on multi-ethnic American literature for the academic audience.

MIT Sloan Management Review*Quarterly

Articles on key issues that affect national and international senior management professionals, focusing on entrepreneurial technologies and business intelligence systems.

MIT Technology Review*6 issues

Magazine reviewing new developments in technology with an emphasis on economic, political, and social implications. Not a new product publication.

Money*12 issues

Money is the nation's largest personal finance magazine. Money's mission is to help readers make better decisions, not just in their investment portfolio, but everywhere life and money intersects - family, home, health, finances, career, spending and their future.

MUSE*9 times

MUSE is the science and arts magazine for kids that's spot on with the facts and off the wall with the jokes. Kids who can't help wondering whether video games really kill their brain cells, or what a gentleman ladybug is called, will find the answers here, in articles written by award-winning authors and accompanied by high-quality illustration and photography.

National Geographic*Monthly

The flagship publication of the National Geographic Society, publishing articles on interesting people, places, customs, activities and nature on a worldwide scale, with an emphasis on human involvement in a changing universe.

National Geographic Kids*10 issues

National Geographic Kids magazine is aimed at young readers from six years and up who want to find out more about the world around them. The magazine contains a superb blend of photos, fun facts, and articles presented in a cheery style, making it perfect for keeping kids' attention.

National Geographic Traveler*6 issues

Presents photographs and informative articles on travel to established destinations around the world. Articles focus on a particular region and its culture, and do not always include lodging or dining information. Examines travel trends and topics such as airlines and the tourism industry.

National Interest*6 issues

A bi-monthly journal of international affairs and diplomacy, covering foreign policy of the U.S. and how it influences international relations. Devotes particular attention to ideas and the way in which cultural and social differences, technological innovations, history, and religion impact the behavior of states.

National Review*24 issues

A journal of news and opinion on national and international issues. Publishes articles, reviews of the arts, and editorials from a conservative standpoint. Numerous political cartoons appear throughout.

New York Review of Books*20 issues

The New York Review of Books has served as a forum for writers and thinkers to discuss not only current books but also the provocative and complex issues of American culture, society, economics, politics, and the arts.

New York Times Book Review*52 issues

The New York Times Book Review is a weekly paper-magazine supplement to The New York Times in which current non-fiction and fiction books are reviewed. It is one of the most influential and widely read book review publications in the industry.

The New Yorker*47 issues

Magazine publishing news editorials, short fiction, poetry, and art reviews.

O Oprah Magazine*Monthly

O, The Oprah Magazine gives confident, smart women the tools they need to explore and reach for their dreams, to express their individual style and to make choices that will lead to a happier and more fulfilling life. With one of the most trusted women in America serving as the magazine's inspiration, O serves as a catalyst for transforming women's lives.

Outside*Monthly

Outside covers travel, sports, health, and fitness, as well as the personalities, the environment, and the style and culture of the world outside.

People Weekly*54 issues

A consumer magazine offering news of the entertainment world. Contains information on celebrities, newsmakers, and real people of interest.

Poetry*11 issues

Poetry regularly presents new work by the most recognized poets, but its primary commitment is still to discover new voices

Popular Science*6 issues

Popular Science has been a leading source of science and technology news since its inception way back in 1872.

Prevention*Monthly

A consumer magazine featuring new developments in nutrition, preventive medicine, fitness, natural living and drugless therapies.

Psychology Today*6 issues

A bimonthly popular magazine of psychology that contains articles on current issues in human behavior, written for the nonprofessional reader. Includes self-help articles and tests, book reviews and opinion columns. Directed toward general audiences.

Ranger Rick*10 issues

Ranger Rick is for children ages 7 and up. Each issue is packed with amazing facts, stunning photos and outdoor adventures that help kids sharpen reading skills and develop a deeper appreciation for nature. A Parent's Choice Gold Award recipient in 1999. Published monthly.

Reader's Digest*10 issues

America's most trusted magazine for ideas and inspiration on the topics that matter most to you.

Science*51 issues

A peer-reviewed journal that reports on international developments and research in all fields of science. Content includes brief news stories, in-depth articles, original research reports, editorials, job postings, essays, and book reviews. Special sections cover scientific training, career development, and the science job market, among other topics.

Scientific American*Monthly

This magazine is designed for technically educated professionals and managers who have a positive predisposition to read about, get involved with and act on a broad range of the physical and social sciences. Its articles and features anticipate what the breakthroughs and the news will be in a society increasingly dependent upon scientific and technological advances.

Smithsonian Magazine*Monthly

A monthly magazine that covers the arts, environment, sciences, history, and popular culture of the times, including news and stories that relate to current exhibits and events at the Smithsonian museums and elsewhere. Directed toward educated readers with diverse interests.

Sports Illustrated*50 issues

Description: A consumer magazine focusing on sports. Covers all types of popular sports, with articles on players, teams, sports, and society.

Studies in American Fiction*2 issues Semiannual

Publishes articles, notes, and reviews of the fiction of the United States. The essays provide a historical look at the works of well-known authors such as Ernest Hemingway, Mark Twain, and Kate Chopin.

Time 52 issues

A consumer magazine covering news and general editorial. Provides analysis of today's important events, from politics to scientific breakthroughs to human achievement. Also reports on the arts, business and society.

Time (Asian edition) 54 issues

A consumer magazine covering news and general editorial. Provides analysis of today's important events, from politics to scientific breakthroughs to human achievement. Also reports on the arts, business and society.

Vanity Fair Monthly

Covers world affairs, entertainment, business, fashion, crime and society.

Washington Quarterly Quarterly

The Washington Quarterly, often abbreviated TWQ, is a quarterly magazine of international affairs, analyzing global strategic changes and their public policy implications.

Wired Monthly

WIRED uncovers the most surprising and resonant stories about the people, companies, technologies and ideas that are transforming our lives. Whether it's technology...business...global politics...new media...arts and culture...the environment...or the best new products, WIRED is there, on the front lines of the 21st Century. Find out what's next with WIRED!

Woman's Day Monthly

Woman's Day Magazine covers many topics of interest to women, making it one of the leading magazines in the country. Each issue features a variety of articles relating to home improvement, cooking, fashion, and family. Designed for women on a budget, many of the issues come with tips on saving money on clothing, food, and travel.

Women's Studies Quarterly Quarterly

Since 1972, WSQ has been an interdisciplinary forum for the exchange of emerging perspectives on women, gender, and sexuality. Its thematic issues focus on such topics as Activisms, The Global and the Intimate, The Sexual Body, Trans-, Technologies, and Mother, combining psychoanalytic, legal, queer, cultural, technological, and historical work to present the most exciting new scholarship on ideas that engage popular and academic readers alike.

Women's Health*Monthly

Provides information about health and beauty tips, fitness and weight loss, career and stress, sex and relationships, nutrition and diet.

Writer's Digest*8 issues

For the writer at heart. Each issue focuses on the craft of writing, the tools and information for writing, and the markets for writing. Features examine how to write and sell magazine and newspaper articles, books, plays, poetry and scripts.

*****