DISCLAIMER: The U.S. Consulate General in Chennai, India, assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the medical professionals, medical facilities or air ambulance services whose names appear on the following lists. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Consulate General. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials and areas of expertise are provided directly by the medical professional, medical facility or air ambulance service; the Consulate General is not in a position to vouch for such information. You may receive additional information about the individuals and facilities on the list by contacting local medical boards and associations (or its equivalent) or local licensing authorities.

The quality of medical care in India varies considerably. Please see the section titled “Medical facilities and Health information” in the State Department Country specific information for India for detailed information. Most of the hospitals listed below have secured National Accreditation Board for Hospitals & Healthcare (NABH) accreditation. NABH is a constituent board of Quality Council of India, set up to establish and operate accreditation program for healthcare organizations.

Good information on vaccinations and other health precautions can be found via the CDC Website. For information about outbreaks of infectious diseases abroad, consult the World Health Organization (WHO) website.

The Consulate General in Chennai provides consular services for the states of Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Kerala, and the Union Territories of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Pondicherry and Lakshadweep Islands.
